From the ARRL Member Bulletin, Jan. 28

Dear ARRL Member,

I am writing to inform members of a recent change in leadership within the Atlantic Division and to provide context regarding the governance process that led to this transition.

Director Famiglio's Recertification Decision

In accordance with ARRL By-Law 46(d), all Directors and Vice Directors are required to annually sign and submit a recertification of the "Board Member Statement on Authority, Responsibility, and Expectations" (see www.arrl.org/general-information), confirming that they have read and understand their fiduciary obligations under ARRL's governing documents and applicable law.

Regrettably, ARRL Atlantic Division Director Robert B. Famiglio, K3RF, voluntarily chose not to submit the signed recertification. This signed statement was completed by all 36 other Board members, as well as all candidates who stood for election during 2025.

Under the bylaw, failure to complete the required recertification within the specified period renders a Board member ineligible to continue serving. As a signed recertification was not received from Mr. Famiglio, he became ineligible to serve, and his position as Atlantic Division Director was vacated pursuant to the bylaw.

We sincerely thank Director Famiglio for his many years of volunteer service and for his contributions to ARRL and the amateur radio community.

Background on the Board Member Statement and By-Law 46

As part of its ongoing efforts to promote effective, transparent governance, the ARRL Board adopted an updated Board Member Statement on Authority, Responsibility, and Expectations, incorporated into By-Law 46, at the July 2025 Board meeting. The statement is intended to clarify for Directors, and candidates seeking election to the Board, their fiduciary duties, including the obligation to act in the best interest of the organization, and to not advance any interests that may conflict with ARRL's interests.

The proposed revisions to By-Law 46 were circulated to all Board members and the membership well in advance of adoption. Directors were provided with the opportunity to ask questions, express support or concerns, and consult with ARRL's counsel before a majority of the Board voted to adopt the measure.

Members may review the full Board Member Statement here:

www.arrl.org/general-information

ARRL's By-Laws are available here:

www.arrl.org/arrl-by-laws

Succession and Leadership Continuity

Consistent with ARRL's governing documents, with Director Famiglio voluntarily choosing to become ineligible to serve, Vice Director Marty Newingham, AG3I, has assumed the office of Atlantic Division Director, effective immediately. A replacement Vice Director will be named at a later date.

Commitment to Transparency and Good Governance

ARRL remains committed to adherence to its governing documents and to keeping members informed regarding Board governance, leadership transitions, and organizational continuity. We appreciate our members' engagement and ongoing support.

A farewell to Atlantic division members - it has been an honor to serve

After serving for some 10 years or so after first being elected as your Vice Director, I am disappointed to report that as of 5 PM today, I have been informed that I will be declared ineligible to continue to hold office as your Atlantic division director under the new massive ethics bylaw voted into being last July by a vote of 10 to 5 directors on our ARRL board. I wish to make clear I am not resigning, I am being removed without my consent by the application of the new code of conduct rules passed in July of 2025.

This should come as no surprise to members following the ongoing struggle within our Board to impose compliance with the majority's sense of what ethical responsibilities each member of the board must exhibit. By passage of the new bylaws, the rules now limit or prohibit a director's ability to advise his division of matter involving important board decisions without advance permission. Per these rules it now appears that anything of any importance is to be for the boards' eyes only. Our league is not in competition with other businesses - we have traditionally been supportive of all other amateur radio endeavors. That history has evolved now.

Over the last several years, League followers have seen the struggle of what members have labeled as the transparency party versus the confidentiality party as a shorthand for the governance divide which has plagued the ARRL.

The majority of our Directors, sometimes referred to as the Shadow Board by commentators and League followers, has decided that the governance of our League is not something the members need to concern themselves with. Our League was founded as a representative democracy - which until recently was clearly stated on the League's website - wherein the members of a given division elect those directors to represent their interest primarily in our membership based non-profit institution.

Our League members' values should be paramount. Elected directors' primary duty is to the members. Directors obligation to the members never has been and cannot be inconsistent to their statutory duty to members. Unfortunately, now the majority of the board's directors have chosen to prioritize a director's obligation to a corporate entity in degradation of a director's obligations to the League's members.

Before the vote to enact a sweeping, ambiguous ethics code incorporating over 100 pages of requirements by reference, I was provided with only 12 minutes to question our corporate lawyer on what I was told was her approval of and assistance in drafting the changes. That turned out be misinformation according to answers she provided me. The lawyer admitted she was not asked to opine on the legality of the new bylaws, but only whether it was legal to pass the bylaws. While it was permissible to pass the new bylaws, they are still contrary to the state statutes defining a director cannot be removed except by the members of his division.

I was also pleasantly surprised when the corporate lawyer admitted that a director's duty was, at least, 50% owed to the best interest of the members, not 100% to the corporation as argued by the appointed ethics rules committee of directors orchestrating the officious intermeddling resulting in the new Bylaw 18 and Bylaw(s) 42/46.

The sweeping changes created by the passage of the new bylaws permits these bylaws to be weaponize to remove directors who are in the minority on any issue. You will notice that most directors voting, when role call voting is allowed, is typically a 10 to 5 majority vote in favor of restricting information from members as confidential unless released in writing by the President or CEO. Confidentiality is sometimes necessary, but usually most thing which ARRL does is not. Absent special circumstances, basic information and policy decision details and plans for the future should be available to our members. Of, by and for the radio amateur was founder Maxim's motto.

Based upon the promises and obligations I have made to you, I regret I cannot in good conscience sign the new director's oath of confidentiality that is now demanded by the new bylaws. My interpretation of the new rules and required confidentiality agreement and that of other lawyers I have consulted, contradicts with my obligations under Connecticut law to you. I recommend members read the entirety of the different, contradictory promises a director must agree to and decide for yourself whether they are in the best interest of members.

For a comprehensive and scholarly legal analysis of these issues, search for the white paper reviews drafted by a past director and a past chairman of the Ethics and Election Committee, attorney Fred Hopengarten, K1VR. They had been circulated widely. They point out the absurdity of the new rules. Other nationally recognized non-profit lawyers who are League members agree as well.

Our past 1st Vice President, also an attorney, Mike Raisbeck, K1TWF, drafted an eloquent critic of the downward turn in League politics as his final report to the board January 2024. Mike's report is worth reading and foretells of the issues we face now. It is not available at our League website but also made it out into the wild.

I regret that I cannot execute a statement which I know to be ill-advised, violative of my obligations to you and contrary to my duties under the applicable law governing a membership based corporation.

I urge you to support our Vice Director Marty Newingham AG3I who likely will assume the position of Director now. He has my confidence and I know he has your best interest in mind. It has been a true honor to represent you all as your Atlantic division director. I continue my support of Amateur Radio- always.

73, and I will see you on the radio.

Bob Famiglio, K3RF

Bouvet Island - 3Y0K

3Y0K DXpedition to Bouvet Island, February 2026

January 2026 News Update

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the 3Y0K DXpedition to Bouvet Island will be delayed by approximately two weeks. Our vessel requires additional maintenance to ensure it is fully prepared for the demanding voyage to one of the most remote and challenging locations on Earth.

While this delay is disappointing, the safety of our team remains our highest priority.

The adjustment does not change the overall strategy of the DXpedition, which has been carefully planned over the past three years.

We will continue to keep you informed as our schedule is updated.
